David H. Ealy, Partner

David Ealy is a partner with the firm, primarily assisting clients with issues related to bankruptcy and litigation.

With over 30 years of experience, David has expertise in a broad range of related practice areas, such as trustee representation with businesses, farming, commercial, and personal bankruptcy matters. David serves clients on this array of legal matters throughout the northeast region of the United States.

David is a graduate of the University of Rochester and State University Buffalo Law School. Since his admission to the New York State Bar in 1986, David has been admitted to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, Western District of New York, and Northern District of New York.

In addition to his impressive legal career, David has taught numerous courses and seminars relating the bankruptcy law, including “Litigating in Bankruptcy Court” through the Monroe County Bar Association and “Fundamentals of Bankruptcy” through the National Business Institute.

David is also an active member of the Greater Rochester community as a member of the New York State Bar Association, Monroe County Bar Association Bankruptcy Committee, and Central New York Bankruptcy Bar Association. In addition to his membership, David is the former Chair of the Monroe County Bar Association Bankruptcy Committee and oversaw the implementation of e-filing systems in the Western District Bankruptcy Court during his tenure as Committee Chair. This has proven to fundamentally improve filing processes in bankruptcy actions throughout New York State. David is also a consultant for the New York Farm Net.

For his efforts, David has been recognized as a Super Lawyer in Consumer Bankruptcy.
